

Bio – Gary Knosher 2009

Gary has been involved with the nursery industry for over 30 years. He started his career as an assistant manager for Amlings Flowerland, a retail garden center in the Chicago area. He is currently President of Midwest Groundcovers, located in St. Charles, Illinois. Midwest Groundcovers is a regional nursery serving garden centers and landscapers throughout the Midwest with container grown groundcovers, perennials, shrubs and native plants. Gary has been with Midwest for over 31 years and has experience in most areas of production and sales.

Gary has a Bachelor's degree in Ornamental Horticulture from the University of Illinois and a MBA from North Central College. He is currently serving on the board of the Wholesale Nursery Growers Association, and has been a board member and Past President of the Ornamental Growers Association of Northern Illinois; a board member of the International Plant Propagator's Society, Eastern Region; and served on various committees for the Illinois Green Industry Association and the American Nursery and Landscape Association.
